THE INDIAN SUB-CONTINENT

A land that is home to astonishing diversity, cultural heritage, architectural marvels, magnificent landscapes and culinary delights - India & its Subcontinent will never fail to engage, excite and entertain you.

The snow of the Himalayas, the waters of the oceans, the sand of the deserts and the emerald hues of rain forests assure a dramatic experience for every traveller. And still it is not just the topography of the region that makes it special. It is the people, culture, traditions, diversity and many more such incredible experiences that make every corner of the subcontinent - an amazing destination.

WORDS FROM OUR MD

"Citius. Altius. Fortius"

"Faster. Higher. Stronger" - the motto proposed by Pierre Coubertin for the first Olympics in 1894 and still prevailing today.

In keeping with this motto, we at TBi, have set the bar with our high standards of professionalism and ethics; these have been acknowledged by the industry worldwide and recognized by international bodies and the Ministry of Tourism, resulting in being the recipient of several National and International Tourism Awards.

Privileged to be a member of the fourth generation established in this industry, I have been fortunate to have witnessed the steady growth, and progressive realization of the goals and objectives of our organization.

We cannot seek achievement merely for ourselves.

Our ambitions must be broad enough to include the aspirations and needs of our clients, employees and partners.

The understanding of the market, the ground realities coupled with our matchless client care, all backed by a highly skillful team of dedicated professionals, has enabled us to position ourselves as a destination management company of choice, providing a stimulus to the discerning traveler visiting the Indian subcontinent.

INDIA

A destination, a dream and a delight - India is synonymous to incredible experiences.

An extremely diversified nation, India is a beautiful blend of geographical, climatic, cultural and lingual miscellany. It is the largest democracy on Earth and the centre of trade in Southeast Asia.

This country, in the Asian sub- continent, is an apt example of diverse topographical vastness. Plains like the arid regions of the Thar Desert and salt marshland at Rann of Kutch in the west to mud shores, mangrove forest of the Sundarbans and famous tea plantations of Assam in the east and endless miles of coastlines spanning west, south and east of India, namely Arabian Sea, Indian Ocean and Bay of Bengal make India geographically diversified.

Apart from the geographical, there is interesting cultural diversity, evident from multiple dialects, religions & festivals, music, dance and a wide variety of traditional cuisine. Explore its vastness and feast your eyes on its beauty, marvel at endless sightseeing, visit ancient and modern architectural monuments, revel in adventure, delve into religion and so much more...

NEPAL

This South Asian Nation is not just about the world's highest Himalayan peaks. A gateway to adventure, its diverse locations and cultural activities are sure to suit the avid traveller's taste! Adventure seekers, nature lovers, culture enthusiasts and shopaholics swarm to this land in huge numbers. Visit Lumbini the birthplace of Lord Gautama Buddha - the founder of Buddhism and gain a spiritual experience in the lap of the Himalayas. Hinduism is predominant here and people throng to visit the famous Pashupatinath Temple famous for its captivating evening rituals. Astrology, Ayurveda, Faith Healing, Meditation, World Heritage Sites, wildlife and yoga, the options are endless. With so much to offer, you will be spoilt for choice. Hence, as popularly referred in travel parlance, it is certain that one visit to Nepal is never enough!

BHUTAN

This great Himalayan kingdom weaves a mystical presence and magical aura. Inhabiting this land of astonishing ecology, rich vegetated valleys and snow-capped mountains is a happy population - result of the government's working policy on Gross National Happiness with GDP being secondary. The Thunder Dragon Kingdom nestled in the eastern Himalayas is a landlocked country with predominantly Buddhist culture and tradition. A beautiful trekking destination, Bhutan is about fortresses (dzongs), monasteries, breathtaking views of Mount Everest, Kangchenjunga, Mt. Jitchu Drake and Jomolhari range.

The Land of the Thunder Dragon amazes travellers with its untamed wilderness and rich culture derived from ancient history and legend folklore. Central Bhutan known for its picturesque valleys, ancient temples and monasteries with their own festive fervour adds to the heavenly experience. And the unmissable western Bhutan welcomes you to the beautiful Paro Valley, home to the sacred Tiger's Nest or Paro Taktsang monastery - a Buddhist temple complex clinging to a cliff, 3000 meters above the sea level.

SRI LANKA

Extremely beautiful and enamouring is the land of antiques, beaches, elephants, exotic wildlife, food, gemstones, hospitality, rainforests, tea and train rides - Sri Lanka. Too many spectacular experiences on offer in this scenic island that too affordable and of course memorable. Ancient Buddhist tradition and faith is predominant here followed by Hindu temples and sacred sites tracing back to the mythological period of Ramayana. The 'Wonder of Asia' is popular for its blue waters resplendent with sun and beach activities, heritage tours, adventure sports and hustle and bustle of cultural events and festivals.

Options to explore are abundant - go whale watching in the company of the ever smiling dolphins in Mirissa and Trincomalee, wild safari options like Yala National Park in Hambantota and the mesmerising palace ruins and gardens of Sigiriya. Galle Fort, cloud forests, tea plantations and rich biodiversity of Ella, Dambulla cave temple, Hikkaduwa Beach, Colombo city tour are few out of the endless options.

Visiting this culturally and topographically rich island is a must for any traveller.

ART, CULTURE & HERITAGE

A subcontinent that traces its roots from the beginning of human civilization is exceptionally diverse and dynamic. One lifetime seems short to experience and taste the unique culture spanning twenty nine states and seven union territories in this wonderful nation called India. Its culture and heritage run parallel with the geographical expanse ranging from cold and temperate regions in the north to the hot and humid tropical climate of the south.

India's perennial culture and rich heritage have been preserved through generations and survive in the form of art and traditional ceremonies and festivals.

TRAIL BLAZER TOURS INDIA PVT. LTD.

WILDLIFE

Wildlife in the Indian subcontinent is a major attraction comprising distinct species of flora and fauna. One of the world's most bio-diverse regions is host to the Asiatic Lion, The Royal Bengal Tiger, Snow Leopards, The Blackbuck (Indian antelope), the Asian Elephant, the great Indian One-Horned Rhinoceros and many other animals, birds, insects, over 18,000 flower species and 50,000 species of plants. In the north - Jim Corbett National Park, UNESCO recognised Kaziranga National Park in the northeast and the Sundarbans mangrove forest in Bay of Bengal are world renowned. Kanha Tiger Reserve & Bandhavgarh National Park in Central India have contained and sustained incredible Indian wildlife in the most beautiful way possible. Likewise Ranthambore National Park and Gir in the west are jewels of the Indian Wildlife.

The rich and diverse wildlife exists in innumerable forest lands, floodplain forests, over 500 wildlife sanctuaries, 120 plus national parks and 18 bio-reserves.

TRAIL BLAZER TOURS INDIA PVT. LTD.

FESTIVALS

The unique and elaborate festivities of Indian culture are a treat to the senses. The occasions of diverse faiths, communities, societies and tribes are celebrations that coincide with respective culture, traditions and even seasons. Myriad colours, mouth-watering food and blinding lights are just a few perks and highlight of the distinctive Indian festivals. Overall, a true spectacle to behold, in any part of this country, remains etched in one's mind for long.

Colour your lives with delight on Holi or brighten-up your mood on the occasion of festival of lights Deepawali, the festive season never ends in India. The astonishing Pushkar and Nagaur festivals of Rajasthan are bound to mesmerise visitors by rustic aura. But, excitement doesn't end here - listed on the UNESCO's Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity is Kumbh Mela - the Hindu pilgrimage of faith where thousands gather to bathe in the sacred river.

GUIDES & TRANSPORT

You will come across our well-trained guides and drivers like concerned companions throughout your tour to ensure everything runs smoothly to keep you at ease within their responsibilities, unassumingly.

To us, transport is priority in terms of comfort and safety. This belief driven by our passion for travel services leaves no stone unturned in offering comfortable, world class modes of transport.

TRAIL BLAZER TOURS INDIA PVT. LTD.

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM

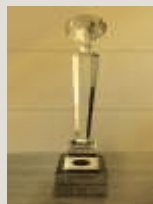

Our concern for the environment corresponds with our passion for travel services and commitment to our patrons.

We believe that no entity or business should function at the cost of our natural resources which sabotage the environment. We are aware of our responsibilities as a contributor in safeguarding the environment in which we operate and as a mature organisation realise that our planet cannot be taken for granted.

As a result we have designed programmes that not only educate our guests but also our indigenous partners and respective staff members to be conscious enough about responsible tourism - a priority for sustainable future.
